

Arthur L. Davila Middle School

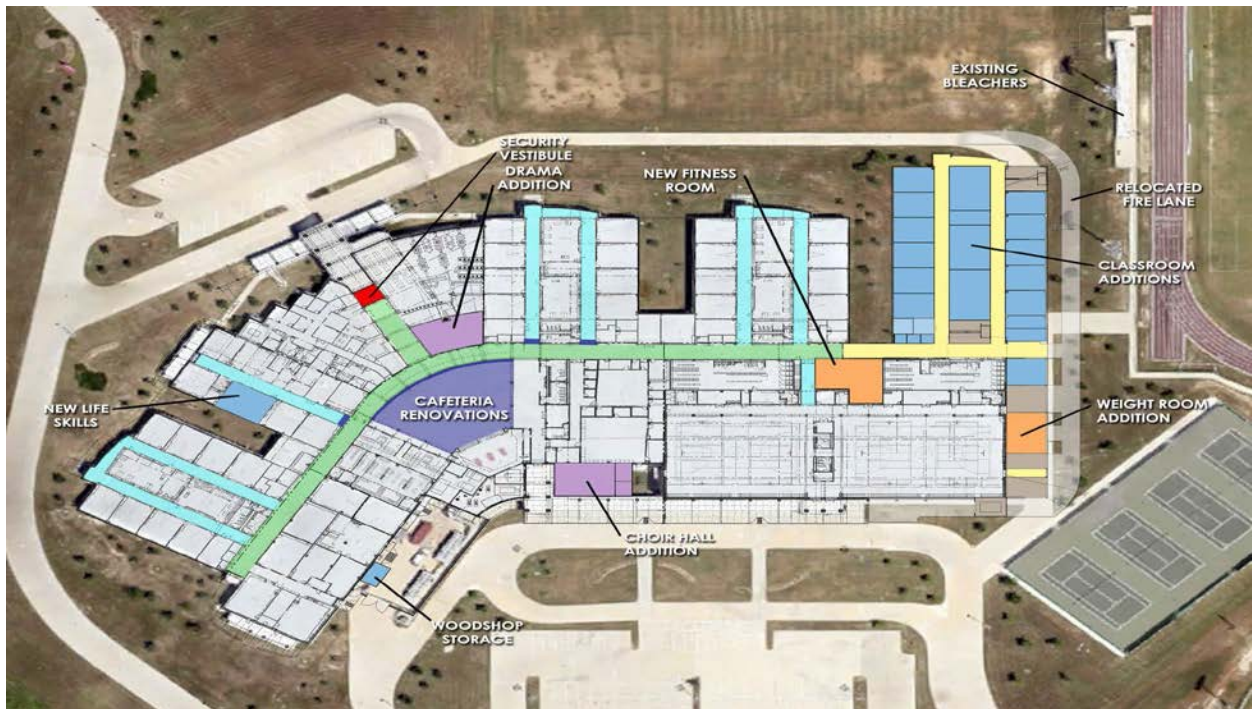

This project is a 20 classroom addition for the existing school, which includes a new choir room, weight room and black box theater.

The construction plans will be released in August for proposals on September 23rd..

Stantec is the Architect responsible for the project, the planned completion is August of 2016

This is a rendering of the proposed front of the building

This is a rendering of the floor plan of the school and where the new rooms are located