

Sul Ross Elementary School

This project is a full replacement for the existing school and renovations to the existing cafeteria, kitchen, art and music rooms.

The construction plans will be released in September for proposals the first of October.

Stantec is the Architect responsible for the project, the planned completion is October of 2016

This is a rendering of the proposed front of the building

This is a rendering of the main entrance and library area

This is a rendering of how the new school will sit on the site